

Document Downloaded: Wednesday September 16, 2015

October 2013 COGR Meeting Thursday Morning Presentation - Kennedy

Author: David Kennedy

Published Date: 10/28/2013

NIH Subaccounting and Closeout Policies: A Good Transition

COGR Meeting

Thursday, October 24, 2013

Washington Marriott Hotel

Washington, D.C.

Agenda for this Session

- Introduce Presenters
- Why this Session? ... A Good Transition!
- Case Studies and Insights
- Your Concerns, Q&A, Other Comments
- AND, time permitting: “Shutdown Post-Mortem”

Presenters

- Dan Evon , Director, Contract & Grant Administration – Michigan State University:
NSF and ACM$ at MSU
- Missy Peloso, Associate Vice Provost for Research Services – University of Pennsylvania:
Practices and Challenges at Penn
- Joe Gindhart, Assistant VC for Finance and Director of Sponsored Projects Accounting – Washington University in Saint Louis
Practices and Challenges at WashU

Presenters

- Michelle Bulls, Director of the Office of Policy for Extramural Research Administration – NIH
NIH Perspective on Policy Changes
- Michael S. Peckham, Director, Division of Payment Management – HHS
Q&A, Payment Management System
- Daniel Long, Systems Accountant, Division of Payment Management – HHS
Q&A, Payment Management System

Time Permitting ...

- Shutdown Post-Mortem ... Do we need to take away “lessons learned”?

Financial and administration implications, as well as the impact on important research studies?

- Kelvin Droegemeier, Vice President for Research
– University of Oklahoma

Research and the Academic Fall-out of the Shutdown